

DID YOU SEE?

Ben Speaks About Charlottesville

A few weeks ago, our nation (and the world), witnessed as hatred descended into the Virginia town of Charlottesville. Spanning the course of a weekend, Nazis and white supremacists took to the streets to voice their first amendment. Sadly, the violence and hatred took one life and injured many others. Ben, our founder, shared his thoughts in the aftermath of the event on two Las Vegas news channels, speaking about the hatred which fueled the Holocaust.

What can we do to help combat this hate that seems to be creeping into our lives? Watch these clips to find out.

Education and remembrance go hand-in-hand so we can ensure we never forget. Holocaust Survivors, Generations thereof and ZACHOR Holocaust Remembrance Foundation share the same goal: to Remember.

With Remembrance, we must engage, create meaningful dialog and take action. We cannot do this alone. We need your help. Click here to learn more.
